Invitation to our International Meeting at Carnoustie during our Centenary year 28 – 31 May 2012

Dear Golfer,

We are very pleased to welcome you to the Royal Swedish Golfing Society's International Meeting during our Centenary year 2012, to be held at Carnoustie Golf Club, Scotland.

The Carnoustie Golf Club has a long and proud history. They were formally constituted in 1842 and this makes them one of the ten oldest Golf Clubs in the world. This together with their status as one of the permanent British Open courses gives the club a unique position in world golfing history. (You probably also remember when Van de Velde lost the Trophy to Paul Lawrie after he considered to play his ball from the Burn on the 18th).

The Carnoustie Golf Club and hotel are located on the east coast of Scotland and you can fly to Edinburgh or Glasgow. From Edinburgh it's about 1 1/2 hours drive and from Glasgow about 2 hours. More information and directions can be found at their website www.carnoustiegolfclub.com.

The participants will be invited to the local provost for a reception one evening. For the Gala Dinner, which will be a traditional Celtic evening, the men will each be provided with a Scottish Highland Dress, (inclusive of Trews, Sporrans, Sgian Dubh and Ghillies - so no need for a black tie), and the ladies will wear their own dress and be provided with a Scottish Tartan Sash.

We have a limited number of places and need to confirm - and start to pay - for this as soon as possible, latest by October this year. At that time we will have a small opportunity to increase the number if needed. Early booking and binding commitment is therefore essential.

The price for this package is for a double/twin room £690, single room £790 and for a non golfer £490. This price includes 3 nights lodging with full Scottish Breakfast, 2 dinners with wine and drinks, 1 gala dinner with wine and drinks, entertainment, and of course 3 days of fantastic golf. The competition program will be sent out later.

The timeline and payments will be as follows for people in double/twin rooms:

Latest by 1 st October 2011 -	50% binding commitment to attend the meeting and first down payment done; £345
Latest by 1 March 2012 -	Remaining 50% to have been paid; £345
Single occupancy	£395 twice
Non golfers	£245 twice

This means that at departure you only pay for private expenses during the meeting.

For those of you who like to arrive earlier you can call the hotel directly www.carnoustiehotels.com and book your extra night(s).

We have agreed a price of £130.00 incl. breakfast for a double room and £100.00 for a single room.

If you would like to book an extra day of golf you can do that online on www.carnoustiegolfclub.com.

Please fill in the form below and send it to your Country Captain/Secretary . You send your money directly to the Royal Swedish Golfing Society's bank account in England. You'll find all the details on the form.

Remember: Not later than 1st October 2011 and at least £345.00/£395/£245/person.

We are really looking forward to seeing you at our International Meeting during our Centenary year. We're working for it to be a supreme golfing experience for you.

Kind regards

Christina Andersson
